

Friends of the Library

A Note of Appreciation

Dear Friends and Patrons,

The Friends of the Library Annual Spring Book Sale was another successful event. But it could not have been so without all the hard work of the thirty-one volunteers who generously gave their time and muscle to set up the books, work during sale hours and do the breakdown after the sale. I personally received many compliments about how well organized our sale was in comparison to a number of other sales in the area at the same time. And this is due to all of you who seem to have the same pride in the Westchester Friends of the Library as I do. THANK YOU, THANK YOU!!

I also thank all who generously donate books and magazines for our annual sale and the year-round book rack we have in the Library. Without you, neither would occur. The book rack has become a very popular and profitable feature. Year-round donors and buyers assist the Friends in the financial support we give to the Westchester Library for programming, equipment and other projects.

Remember, books and magazines are continuously accepted at the Library circulation desk. Our next book sale will be in the spring of 2011. In the meantime, keep on reading!
